Graduation

Spring 2009

Thank you for being a part of this graduation service of worship and witness. To graduates, we celebrate your diligent work and passion for God's truth and will. To family and friends, we praise God for your support and prayers. May we go forth from this service with a greater heart for Jesus Christ and for the needs of people worldwide.

- Please ensure that all pagers, cell and blackberry phones are turned off or put on silent mode.
- If you would like to take pictures during the ceremony, proceed to the balcony. As a courtesy to minimize distraction in the flow of the service, access to the front section of the lower auditorium for photography will not be permitted.
- Audiotapes of the service may be ordered through the Tyndale Bookstore at 416.226.6620 ext. 2188.

Praise, My Soul, the King of Heaven

*Praise, my soul, the King of heaven,
To His feet thy tribute bring,
Ransomed, healed, restored, forgiven,
Evermore His praises sing
Alleluia! Alleluia!
Praise the everlasting King*

*Praise Him for His grace and favour
To our fathers in distress,
Praise Him still the same as ever,
Slow to chide, and swift to bless
Alleluia! Alleluia!
Glorious in His faithfulness*

*Frail as summer's flow'r we flourish
Blows the wind and it is gone,
But, while mortals rise and perish,
God endures unchanging on
Alleluia! Alleluia!
Praise the high eternal one*

*Angels in the height, adore Him,
You behold Him face to face,
Saints triumphant, bow before Him,
Gathered in from ev'ry race
Alleluia! Alleluia!
Praise with us the God of grace*

My Gift to You

Brian C. Stiller

Immortal, Invisible, God Only Wise

*Immortal, invisible, God only wise,
In light inaccessible hid from our eyes,
Most blessed, most glorious, the Ancient of Days,
Almighty, victorious, Thy great Name we praise.*

*Unresting, unchanging, and silent as light,
Nor wanting, nor wasting, Thou rulest in might;
Thy justice, like mountains, high soaring above
Thy clouds, which are fountains of goodness and love.*

*To all, life Thou givest, to both great and small;
In all life Thou livest, the true life of all;
We blossom and flourish as leaves on the tree,
And wither and perish—but naught changeth Thee.*

*Great Father of glory, pure Father of light,
Thine angels adore Thee, all veiling their sight;
All praise we would render; O help us to see
'Tis only the splendor of light hideth Thee!*

Recessional (please stand)

Crown Him with Many Crowns

*Crown Him with many crowns, the Lamb upon His throne
Hark! How the heavenly anthem drowns all music but its own
Awake, my soul, and sing of Him who died for thee,
And hail Him as thy matchless King through all eternity*

*Crown Him the Lord of life, who triumphed o'er the grave,
And rose victorious in the strife for those He came to save
His glories now we sing, who died, and rose on high,
Who died eternal life to bring, and lives that death may die*

*Crown Him the Lord of peace, whose pow'r a scepter sways
From pole to pole, that wars may cease, and all be pray'r and praise
His reign shall know no end, and round His pierced feet
Fair flow'rs of paradise extend their fragrance ever sweet*

*Crown him the Lord of love, behold his hands and side,
Those wounds, yet visible above, in beauty glorified,
All hail, Redeemer, hail! For thou hast died for me
Thy praise and glory shall not fail thro'out eternity*

Reception to follow.

Praise My Soul the King of Heaven, public domain,
Immortal, Invisible, God Only, Wise, public domain,
Crown Him with Many Crowns, public domain

DISTINGUISHED ALUMNI 2009

University

Edvard Torjesen, Diploma 1947

Edvard Torjesen grew up in Shanxi, North Central China. There he experienced World War II and saw his father Peter Torjesen, a Norwegian evangelist, shelter wartime refugees until Peter was killed by a Japanese dive-bomb in 1939. After the war, Edvard came to Canada and studied at Toronto Bible College (TBC), graduating in 1947.

After TBC he served as a missionary in Asia. He became a language expert and worked on translating scripture into Taiwanese and Mongolian dialects. He also published Fredrik Franson: A Model for Worldwide Evangelism (Pasadena: William Carey Library, 1983).

In 1990 Edvard and his family returned to Shanxi for the unveiling of a monument to his father Peter Torjesen. After a special appeal from the governor, the Torjesen family founded the Colorado-based Shanxi Evergreen Service, a non-profit humanitarian group aimed at assisting Shanxi and other Chinese Provinces by developing public benefit services for the common people. Edvard served as Executive Director of Evergreen for several years.

Through Evergreen, Edvard has also been involved with trade policies related to China and the US. On June 17, 1997, Torjesen addressed the US-China Trade Relations and Renewal of China's Most-Favoured-Nation Status hearing before the Subcommittee on Trade of the Committee on Ways and Means of the House of Representatives.

After a distinguished career, Edvard retired to Shanxi, Taiyuan. Although suffering from Alzheimer's, he is happy in his home, and still maintains the aura of one connected to Christ. His son, Finn Torjesen, serves Shanxi Evergreen Service as Executive Director, thus continuing the family's involvement with the ministry.

Seminary

Mark Petersen, MDiv 1991

Mark Petersen graduated from Tyndale Seminary with a Master of Divinity in 1991. After leaving Tyndale, Mark and his wife Karen spent nine years working with non-profit organizations to grow leadership in church communities across the world. He served in places such as the US, Costa Rica and the Philippines. He also served in Columbia, living amongst the people, and experiencing first hand several aspects of its drug and guerrilla-fuelled history. Through this, however, he came to admire the Colombian resilience and the positive attitudes of the people despite their many years of civil strife.

In November 2000, Mark joined the Bridgeway Foundation, a private grant-making organization whose mission is to collaborate with innovators to grow healthy and productive non-profit organizations, and to help them engage in creative transformational projects across Canada and the world. Here, he serves as Executive Director, working with over 70 Christian and secular organizations to support numerous groundbreaking projects, including Yonge Street Mission, Listen Up TV, Cambridge Memorial Hospital, World Vision, YMCA, Community Justice Initiatives and Tyndale University College & Seminary. Mark has supported Tyndale through his leadership as President of the Tyndale Alumni Association in 2007 and 2008.

Mark's philanthropic leadership is marked by moral integrity, transparent accountability, public witness and unwavering commitment to a missional engagement of society for the sake of Christ. He continues to work with Bridgeway and lives in Mississauga with Karen and their two teenage sons, Daniel and Nathan.

HONORARY DOCTORATE 2009

The Reverend Andrew Wong

Quiet, humble, and never seeking the limelight, Andrew Wong is a creative and bold servant of Christ. He and his wife Linda founded the Toronto Chinese Baptist Church in 1968. Under his leadership, four other churches have been planted in southern Ontario: North Toronto Chinese Baptist Church (1974), Windsor Chinese Baptist Church (1975), Mississauga Chinese Baptist Church (1986), and Scarborough Chinese Baptist Church (1987). From these churches were built others: Brampton (1986), Markham (1990) and Pickering (1992) Chinese Baptist Church.

Andrew grew up in Hong Kong. After graduating with a BTh from Alliance Bible Seminary in 1964, he went to Kuala Lumpur (Malaysia) as a missionary/pastor. He graduated with a BA from Nyack Missionary College (New York) in 1968, and earned an MDiv from Tyndale in 1981.

Besides his pastoral calling, Andrew actively served as chair of the Co-ordination Centre of World Evangelism (Eastern Canada), coordinator for Canada East for the Chinese Baptist Fellowship, board member of the Evangelical Fellowship of Canada, the Canadian Baptist Ministries and the Overseas Missionary Fellowship.

In the 1990s, Andrew and Linda led short-term missions to Bolivia, Venezuela, and Panama, engaging in evangelism, teaching and training among the Chinese in these countries. As well, they make annual trips to China, engaging in lay leadership and Bible training for those unable to attend Bible college.

Timothy Hearn

Born in Saskatchewan, Timothy graduated from the University of Manitoba and in 1967 joined Imperial Oil. For the next forty-one years, he would serve in various roles and nations.

In 1992, he was made worldwide vice president for Exxon Chemical, and from 1994 to 1997 was president of Exxon Chemical Asia Pacific based in Singapore. From there, he was vice president of human resources of Exxon and in 2002 returned to Canada as chairman, president and CEO of Imperial Oil Limited.

As well, he has served as chairman of the C.D. Howe Institute, is a member of the board of directors of the Royal Bank of Canada, co-chairs a campaign for the University of Alberta and chairs the $58 million Uncommon Ground capital campaign for Tyndale.

He and his wife Susan, since moving to Calgary, have been much involved in the Calgary Homeless Foundation, which he chairs. They attend Centre Church, a growing and dynamic church in Calgary.

HISTORY OF TYNDALE UNIVERSITY COLLEGE & SEMINARY

Tyndale is the result of two schools joining in 1968: Toronto Bible College (TBC) and London College of Bible and Missions (LCBM). The Toronto school was founded in 1894, and is the third oldest school (after Moody Bible Institute and Nyack College) of its kind in North America. Known first as Toronto Bible Training School and then as Toronto Bible College, the school was located near the University of Toronto. Its founding President was Rev. Elmore Harris, Minister of the historic Walmer Road Baptist Church and a member of the Massey-Ferguson family.

London College of Bible and Missions was founded in 1935 as London Bible Institute by Dr. J. Wilmot Mahood. In 1968 LCBM and TBC merged, becoming Ontario Bible College. In 1976, the College moved to its present location in North York.

The development of Ontario Theological Seminary evolved naturally out of a demand by church, missions and students for graduate level studies.

The name Tyndale was adopted in 1998 as part of a renewed vision to build a great centre of Christian higher education. Its namesake, William Tyndale, an early Protestant reformer and the first person to translate the Holy Scriptures from the original languages into English, serves as a model for scholarship, Christian faith and vision.

On June 26, 2003 the Ontario Legislative Assembly passed Bill Pr21, which granted permission to change the name to Tyndale University College & Seminary and for the College to offer Bachelor of Arts and Bachelor of Arts Honours degrees in the humanities, social sciences and business. In 2007 Tyndale received approval from the Ontario Ministry of Training, Colleges and Universities and from the Ontario College of Teachers to offer a Bachelor of Education program. In addition to current degrees, The Association of Theological Schools in the United States and Canada (ATS) has approved Tyndale's Doctor of Ministry degree program.

Tyndale is an evangelical, transdenominational school with over 1,200 students and more than 9,000 alumni.

THE CREST OF TYNDALE UNIVERSITY COLLEGE & SEMINARY

- The name Tyndale is taken from the father of the English Bible, William Tyndale (1494-1536).
- Tyndale is a merger of two schools, the Toronto Bible Training School (1894), later known as Toronto Bible College (TBC), and London Bible Institute (1935), later known as London College of Bible and Missions (LCBM). In 1968 LCBM and TBC merged to become Ontario Bible College. The Seminary began in 1976.
- The lamp symbol is taken from Psalm 119:105: "Your word is a lamp to my feet and a light for my path."
- The Greek term doulos Christou describes Tyndale's vision; to be servants of Christ.
- Burgundy and Blue are the school colours.

THE MISSION:

Tyndale is dedicated to the pursuit of truth, to excellence in teaching, learning and research, for the enriching of mind, heart and character, to serve the church and the world for the glory of God.
